

Nicole H. Stewart, PE, PTOE

Candidate's Professional Biography

- Education: Bachelor of Science, Physics, Xavier University of Louisiana, 2004 and Bachelor of Science, Civil Engineering, Southern University and A&M College, 2004
- Career: Eighteen (18) years of consulting with seventeen years specializing in Traffic and Transportation Engineering. Nicole has been at Urban Systems, Inc. since 2005 and became a Principal and Vice President of Urban Systems, Inc in 2012.
- Registrations: PE in LA (2009), MS (2019) and TX (2022); PTOE (2012).
- Membership: ITE Member since 2006

ITE Service Summary

- Deep South Section 2015 Past President
- Past Deep South Section Newsletter Editor

Professional Affiliations

- 2018 Emerging Leaders Institute
- Louisiana economic Development (LED) CEO Roundtable 2022

Other Volunteer Service

- Charter member of the Pradat Booster Club
 - Worked to revitalize a New Orleans neighborhood playground after Hurricane Katrina

Nicole has extensive experience in Traffic Engineering and Transportation Planning. She has worked at all levels on a wide variety of projects for both public and private clients. Nicole's expertise includes traffic control device plan design, traffic signal design, traffic impact analyses, signalized and unsignalized intersection analysis and signal timing studies.